

Good Books for Spring Sunshine

Chelsea Roy, Adult Services Librarian, KTL

There's something about good weather and sunshine that always makes me want to relax and read more. With the weather finally turning and the outdoors coming back to life, my mood is lifting and with it, my desire to be outside and immersed in a good new book. There is nothing quite like being out in the yard in my coziest outdoor chair, breathing the fresh air while my dog plays in the yard and I have the perfect story to consume me.

My 'To Be Read' pile may be long, yet I find I always want something brand new to accompany my outdoor reading time. Thankfully the library has gotten in all sorts of new titles recently! Including these five brand new releases!

This Summer Will be Different by Carley Fortune

"Lucy is the tourist vacationing at a beach house on Prince Edward Island. Felix is the local who shows her a very good time. The only problem: Lucy doesn't know he's her best friend's younger brother. Lucy and Felix's chemistry is unreal, but the list of reasons why they need to stay away from each other is long, and they vow to never repeat that electric night again. It's easier said than done."-Book Jacket

Throne of Grace by Bob Drury and Tom Clavin

"It is the early 19th century, and the land recently purchased by President Thomas Jefferson stretches west for thousands of miles. Who inhabits this vast new garden of Eden? What strange beasts and natural formations can be found? Thus was the birth of Manifest Destiny and the resulting bloody battles with Indigenous tribes encountered by white explorers. Also in this volatile mix are the grizzled fur trappers and mountain men, waging war against the Native American tribes whose lands they traverse."-Book Jacket

Five Broken Blades by Mai Corland

"The king of Yusan must die.

The five most dangerous liars in the land have been mysteriously summoned to work together for a single objective: to kill the god king Joon.

He has it coming. Under his merciless immortal hand, the nobles flourish, while the poor and innocent are imprisoned, ruined...or sold."-Book Jacket

How to Read a Book by Monica Wood

"Our Reasons meet us in the morning and whisper to us at night. Mine is an innocent, unsuspecting, eternally sixty-one-year-old woman named Lorraine Daigle..."-Amazon

Long Island by Colm Toibin

"Eilis Lacey is Irish, married to Tony Fiorello, a plumber and one of four Italian American brothers, all of whom live in neighboring houses on a cul-de-sac in Lindenhurst, Long Island, with their wives and children and Tony's parents, a huge extended family that lives and works, eats and plays together. It is the spring of 1976 and Eilis, now in her forties with two teenage children, has no one to rely on in this still-new country..."-Book Jacket

You may place holds for any of the above titles either online through the catalog, by calling or emailing us directly or stopping in. If you stop in, I would love to hear what your favorite 'outdoor' read is!
